Designer Showhouse

We've been enjoying amazingly beautiful weather out East, and we figured why not combine an autumn day in the country and great decorating ideas? We put on our tweeds and paid a visit to The Designer Showhouse of New Jersey, running through November 4th in Saddle River.

Built by Yorkshire Homes, this gracious estate features rooms decorated by 20 top designers and benefits The Cancer Center at Hackensack University Medical Center. Mario Buatta is the Honorary Chairman. Tickets are $30. For more information and directions call 201-236-3636 or visit designershowhousenj.com.

Here are a few of the fabulous moments I saw in the house:

Nancy Boszhardt gives the neutral living room a kick with red taffeta curtains trimmed with apricot and lined with a tiny country print.
